TEXAS REPUBLICAN BOSS WIRES MOODY RESULT RESOLUTION

SUGGESTS THAT CONDEMNATORY MATTER BE SENT BACK LEGISLATURE

DALLAS, June 20. (AP)—Republican state headquarters today announced that R. B. Creager, republican national committeeman, had telegraphed Gov. Dan Moody a protest against signing and approving of the resolution of the Texas house and senate criticising and condemning Mrs. Herbert Hoover for the Dr. Priest episode.

Mr. Creager spoke "as a native born Texan with the same feelings and opinions you have with reference to equal rights of the races," said the telegram.

In the telegram Mr. Creager was said to have announced to have set forth the custom of such teas as that given by Mrs. Hoover and which the wife of the negro congressman from Illinois attended.

Affair Wholly Official

"Invitations to the affairs are extended to the wives of all members and are based upon lists furnished by the officers of house and senate," read the telegram. "On this particular occasion Mrs. De Priest, a wife of Congressman De Priest was invited to one of a series of teas for the wives of members of house and senate. The names of none upon the official

ALLEGED COLLEGE PROFESSOR ADMITS DAMAGING CHARGE

SAYS HE GOT KEY FROM THE BODY OF SLAIN OHIO
STATE CO-ED

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 20.—(AP)—A key taken from the spot where a key taken from the spot where a body of Theora Hix, 24-year-old student at Ohio State University was found last Friday in his admission that he had burned woman's clothes the next day and inability to explain blood stains on his automobile was information authorities today had obtained from Dr. James H. Snook, dismissed professor at the university. They continued their questioning.

Dr. Snook, questioned until 6 o'clock this morning, was brought back before Prosecutor John J. Chester and detectives a short time later. At noon, Chester summoned a stenographer into the room where Snook was closed. Snook has been under questioning almost continuously since 20 hours.

Chief of Detectives W. G. Schellenger said Dr. Snook told him he took the key to the north side room in which he and Miss Hix had shared as man and wife from the spot where the girl's body was discovered. It was returned to the landlady of the rooming house a short time before the co-ed's body was found.

Authorities also said Snook had admitted burning woman's clothing in the furnace at his home shortly before he was called for investigation and was unable to tell how blood stains came on his automobile. The blood stains are being analyzed to determine whether they are human or animal blood.

Attorneys for Snook said they had temporarily dropped plans for obtaining his release on habeas corpus proceedings and intimated they would have a statement later.

NEW BLUE SKY BILL PASSED BY SENATE BY 15 TO 8 VOTE

AUSTIN, June 20.—(AP)—The "blue sky" bill, written for Mrs. Jane Y. McCallum, secretary of state, to prevent the sale of fraudulent stock in Texas, was finally passed, 15 to 8, in the senate, today.

The measure has been the subject of recent debates during which Senator W. D. McFarland, Graham, assumed the leading role as opponent of the bill. He contended it dealt unfairly with independent oil operators who had pioneered in the petroleum industry in the state.

The measure provides that the secretary of state be satisfied that the applicant for a permit to sell stock be of good business repute and that the proposed plan of business is equitable.

FINANCE BODY TO DEVOTE TIME TO TARIFF IN RECESS

CONGRESS ADJOURNED AFTER HEATED ARGUMENT
ON PROHIBITION

BY FRANCIS M. STEVENSON
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

WASHINGTON, June 20.—(AP)—The senate finance committee stood guard in the heat of a Washington summer at the deserted capitol today to toll over a mass of figures involved in the pending tariff measure while other members of congress lay by vacation.

For two months the committee will hear witnesses and work on the tariff measure passed by the house, and then the senate will return on August 19—to begin consideration of this last recommendation of President Hoover remaining to be acted upon at the special session.

The recess was taken last night after a day of vigorous debate in the senate revolving principally about prohibition and few figures on the house over the maturity date of the $400,000,000 French war supplies debt.

Discuss Prohibition Changes.

The senate prohibition debate hinged on the resolution of Senator Jones, republican, Washington, proposing appointment of a joint congressional committee, as requested by President Hoover to study the advisability of transferring the prohibition agency to the department of justice. The last round of discussion, forestalled action, and the resolution went over as the unfinished business before the senate to be taken after the recess.

The final hour of the session found the senate again reverting to its dispute with President Hoover over the export debenture farm re-

Constable Was Ambushed After Raid On Party

HOUSTON, June 20.—(AP)—J. M. Weaver, 42, constable of Addicks, was fatally shot from ambush last night in a search following a raid on Juneteenth negro beer party near here. He died at a Houston hospital. Posse sought the slayer.

According to Weaver's son, Gil, he, a deputy, and Jessie Sober, another deputy, the three officers were passing a house and saw the party. They raided the place and took a few prisoners, but the main part of the party scattered.

Sober remained at the house in charge of the prisoners while Weaver and his son chased others in their automobile.

About half a mile from the house the constable noticed some one in some woods. He started to leave the machine, and the fatal shot was fired from the woods.

The mayor and county authorities started an investigation and called oil and gas company officials into consultation in an effort to determine its source.

While no official information was received this morning concerning the source of the poison gas, observers, according to the El Paso Herald believed that it was natural gas.

BISHOP CANNON DEALT IN STOCK MARKET ACCORDING BOOKS OF DEFUNCT FIRM

Monument Man Finds Cat With Numerous Lives

The time honored "cat with nine lives" has been discovered in Corsicana, according to the viewpoint of Charles Bee, in all sobriety. Mr. Bee, prior to his departure with the information mentioned cat, had reason to doubt the authenticity of Mr. Aesop's findings, or whoever promulgated the theory, as to the number of lives of the feline species. Now, he will tell anyone who may be interested, that he has proven they have two lives, at least.

One night the first part of this week, a black cat launched a malevolent campaign on Mr. Bee's chickens, which, of course, he resisted. Arming himself with the twenty hundredths of the owner of the fine flock of domestic fowls, fired on the intruder, killing him instantly.

Next day, Mr. Bee went fishing and did not get back until late that night. On returning, he saw the cat "sleeping peacefully" on the back steps. Again, armed with the shotgun, he sent several ounces of lead home, into the heart of the cat.

Later, Mr. Bee found out that some children had placed the dead cat on the steps, preparing to bury.

GAS ATTACK TAKES TWO LIVES; OTHERS INJURED EL PASO

EL PASO, June 20.—(AP)—Two dead and sixteen others were in an El Paso hospital today from the effects of gas or undetermined nature last night. Several may die.

The dead: Ignacio Caceres, 3, and Bartolo Caceres, 8.

In the hospital: Mrs. Maria Caceres, 45; Miguez Caceres, 45; Julian Caceres, 22; Maria Caceres, 14; Librado Caceres, 19-month-old girl; Cecilio Vilas; Emilia Vilas; Francisco Quiroz; Adriana Bermudez, 24, and seven unidentified.

The tragedy occurred along the North Loop road in a refinery district near town. The nature of the gas was undetermined. Official statements were not made.

Police parties were organized soon after their rescue of the gas was known, but their work was hampered as the gas was reported hanging low over the district. It was several hours before all the victims were found.

The mayor and county authorities started an investigation and called oil and gas company officials into consultation in an effort to determine its source.

While no official information was received this morning concerning the source of the poison gas, observers, according to the El Paso Herald believed that it was natural gas.

The measure provides that the secretary of state be satisfied that the applicant for a permit to sell stock be of good business repute and that the proposed plan of business is equitable.

SENATE FINALLY PASSED COMPROMISE PRISON MEASURE

'OT DISSENTING VOTE REGISTERED AS IMPORTANT LEGISLATION COMPLETED

AUSTIN, June 20. (AP)—Without a dissenting vote, the senate today passed its compromise prison survey bill, a subject of stormy debates during the regular and the first special sessions.

Differences of opposing forces having been adjusted in the committee room, the measure required only five minutes for final sanction on the floor.

Senator T. J. Holbrook, Galveston, administration leader, said he believed the bill, if passed, by the house in its present form, would prove acceptable to the governor, who vetoed the compromise bill approved by both houses during the first special session.

The board of prison commissioners, four senators and five members of the house are vested with authority under the bill to survey proposed locations for the penitentiary system and report to the legislature within 90 days after the act becomes effective.

Senator Edgar Witz, Waco, attempted to insert an amendment, making the prison board chairman head of the special committee, but rescinded when Senator A. J. Witz, Seguin, opposed the move.

ATTEMPT TO STOP LIQUOR INFLOW HAS BROUGHT ON ROW

FINAL DAY IN SENATE GIVEN OVER TO HOT DEBATE ON PROHIBITION

WASHINGTON, June 20.—(AP)—As the tightening up process in dry law enforcement proceeds the controversy over the prohibition issue becomes more acute.

Shooting by dry officers, the plans of the Hoover law enforcement commission and the opening of warfare on the Detroit river between federal government agents and rum runners all have their places in the headlines, with a possibility suggestion of some connection with Canada if independent persons come to grief on the International line.

The senate went its temporary way from Washington leaving behind a sizeable closing day bill of debate on the subject during which Senator Glass, Democrat, Virginia, charged that the administration was "submerging" prohibition in the law enforcement inquiry.

VIRTUALLY ENTIRE COUNTRY IN GRIP OF SEVEREST JUNE HEAT WAVE FOR MANY YEARS

IN LOS ANGELES: 84.2 IN SAN DIEGO
AND 84 IN SAN FRANCISCO. THE HEAT
WAVE EXTENDED INTO THE SOUTHWEST
WITH 84 AT OKLAHOMA CITY.

In the east, disastrous electrical storms that caused many deaths brought a drop of 20 degrees in temperature at some points but the mercury again began a steady climb.

On the Pacific coast, from San Francisco south and in the Midwest the highest temperatures for June in years was experienced.

In New York City the temperature rose to 92 degrees, the highest in the weather bureau's annals for the date, and but slight relief was afforded by a thunder shower.

The electrical storm was especially severe in Pennsylvania where lightning bolts killed four persons, cut power lines out of stores, set fire to buildings and damaged barns and trees.

In New Jersey two persons were killed by lightning. Temperature at Newark rose to 94 degrees. In upper New York state the rainfall was so heavy that it washed out bridges near Dickinson Center, trapping a two-coach passenger train of the New York Central.

Thunderstorms in the Midwest failed to provide any adequate relief. Kansas City had high temperatures of 88; Cincinnati, 86; Milwaukee, 84, and Chicago, 80. The Pacific coast, which escaped the heat earlier in the week, reported such temperatures as 98 degrees.

WELLS CLAIMS INNOCENCE JUST PRIOR TO TAKING SEAT IN ELECTRIC CHAIR TODAY

Words of Dead Man May Prove True After All

HUNTSVILLE, June 20.—(AP)—Claiming innocence in a dramatic statement in the death chamber of the state prison here, O. C. Wells, convicted of murdering J. A. Mitchell at Coleman, Texas, Jan. 27, 1927, was electrocuted today.

The lights of the prison dimmed three times as H. T. Howard, prison sergeant, thrice pulled the switch that sent Wells to his Maker. He was pronounced dead at 12:27 a. m., by Dr. L. H. Bust, prison physician.

"I killed him," they quoted Kazullo as saying. "With a hammer, while he slept."

"What?" asked Police Lieutenant and Thomas Duffy.

"Because, he said I was too old to live it alone. I'm only 67."

"A June night, say he was right, at that," mused the lieutenant. "You know what the penalty for murder is in this state?"

"What is it?" said Kazullo.

"Death," replied the policeman.

Fruit Fly Found To Be Infesting New Points Daily

BY FRANK I. WELLER,
Associated Press Farm Editor.
WASHINGTON, June 21.—(P)—Charging that the present activity and development of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America was jeopardizing the fellowship of co-operative unity of the Northern Baptist convention constituency, Judge F. W. Freeman of Denver today exploded the Fundamentalist bombshell which has hung over the convention since its start here.

The secretary of agriculture has revised the quarantine to make it possible to regulate any new area immediately.

The revision provides, furthermore, that no host fruits or vegetables shipped from Florida into northern and northeastern states may be reshipped to territory in the south and west, where direct shipment from Florida already is prohibited.

This means no product from Florida, likely to carry the fly, can be shipped in New York or some other such state and then reshipped or otherwise transported to Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Georgia, Idaho, Louisiana, Mississippi, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Washington and Porto Rico.

All of the main citrus area in the central section of Florida is infested from coast to coast, but infestation in the outer points still is in the incipient stage and probably the result of fruit being moved from the original points of infestation.

Twelve counties are known to have orchard infestation. They are Orange, Volusia, Seminole, Brevard, Lake Duval, Marion, Osceola, Polk, Putnam, Sumpter and Hillsborough.

Perhaps 75 per cent or more of the Florida citrus crop was moved out before the flies were discovered.

FORMER CORSICANA MAN THREW BAPTIST MEETING INTO ROW

DENVER, Colo., June 19.—(P)—

Charging that the present activity and development of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America was jeopardizing the fellowship of co-operative unity of the Northern Baptist convention constituency, Judge F. W. Freeman of Denver today exploded the Fundamentalist bombshell which has hung over the convention since its start here.

Judge Freeman, a leader of local fundamentalists, asserted that "Baptists cannot be other than disturbed and irritated by the assumption that formal Christian union is a consummation to be sought, and the corollary to this, that Protestantism would strengthen and enlarge its contribution to the kingdom in a formal union, more effectively than through denominational channels."

Pointers For The Efficient Farmer

(By U. S. Dept. of Agriculture) The best time to cut oats is when it is in the hard dough stage. If cut before, the grain is not well filled, it shrivels in cutting and is light in weight. If allowed to become fully ripe before cutting, a considerable part of the crop shatters out and is lost in harvesting.

To get the most and best quality seed from a sweet clover crop, harvesting should be done when about half the pods are black. If the first growth is allowed to seed, the stalks will be very tall and coarse and hard to handle. When the field has been grazed until the last of June or a hop crop has been taken, the second growth is less coarse and the seed ripens more evenly.

Laying hens need mash during the summer months to keep up good egg production. Good results are obtained if they get about twice as much mash as scratch feed. It is a good plan to add five pounds of linseed meal to every 100 pounds of mash to help get the hens in good condition for molting.

Buckwheat is an excellent crop to sow where corn or some other crop has failed to make a stand.

The ground can be prepared for buckwheat by disking or harrowing. The best seeding time for any locality can be determined fairly accurately by allowing a period of 12 weeks for growth before the first killing frost is expected.

SUMMER STUDENTS STATE UNIVERSITY START WORK EARLY

REALIZE THAT TIME SHORT AND STUDIES MUST BEGIN AT ONCE

AUSTIN, June 20.—(SP)—Essential differences are recognized between the long session student and the summer student in almost every phase of student activity. Among these differences is found the attitude toward study, according to Theodore Weiss of San Antonio and Reed Cozart of Nacogdoches, student assistants in the reserve library at the University of Texas.

The long session student takes things easy when school first opens, requiring several weeks to orient himself and become interested in or find the necessity of studying Weiss said. On the other hand, the summer student, being older in most cases and realizing that he has little time to waste in getting started, begins preparing his daily lessons as soon as they are assigned. He reads all assigned literature at once, rather than waiting until just before a quiz, as the long session student does frequently. As conclusive proof of this, Weiss pointed out that an average of 1,000 books have been given out over the desk in the reserve library each day since summer school opened, while during the first month or six weeks of the long session approximately one-third less volumes are loaned. The percentage is cut still further when consideration is taken of the fact that there are more than twice as many students enrolled in the long session as in the summer.

The reserve library at the university is used as a loan library for those books that are in constant demand. History texts, books in the elementary education courses, advanced English books, business administration books and government texts from the bulk of the 10,000 volumes "on reserve." These books may be taken out for two hours during the day or for overnight or week-end use. A total of 251,777 books were issued from the reserve library during 1928-29, from March 1 to February 28.

Weiss and Cozart had charge of the reserve library, while three university students are employed as part-time pages in the collection. These are Merritt Stegar of San Angelo, Ben Davis of Hubbard and Robert McKee of Crosbyton.

DUVALL WILLIAMS PAINFULLY INJURED WHEN HIT BY AUTO

Duvall Williams, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Williams, received two bad cuts on the chin when hit by a Ford touring car driven by Elmer Robinson, negro, shortly before 10 o'clock Thursday evening. The accident occurred in front of the Sun office when Duvall was returning to the car driven by his mother after delivering the news from Camp Wanica to the Sun office, and noticing a car approaching from the south, he sped across the street only to be struck by the negro's car going south.

Presence of mind in grabbing the bumper of the car, probably saved the youngster from more severe injuries.

After receiving first aid treatment at the office of Dr. Dubert Miller, he was taken to Camp Wanica where his mother is counselor for the group of girls now enjoying an outing at the summer camp of the local Camp Fire Girls.

SEASON EARLY FOR TEXAS FRUIT AND VEGETABLES

AUSTIN, June 19.—(S.S.)—An unusually large seasonal decrease is reflected in the shipments of fruits and vegetables from Texas farms during May, according to Bervard Nichols, editor of the Texas Business Review, issued monthly by the Bureau of Business Research at the University of Texas.

"Ordinarily, May or June is the peak month for the spring movement, but it appears now that April is the high month for this year," Mr. Nichols said. This is accounted for by the fact that the season is from two to three weeks earlier than normal.

"A total of 5,764 cars of fruits and vegetables were loaded in May, compared to 9,659 in April and 6,409 cars in May last year. Shipments of mixed vegetables, cabbage, strawberries, onions, potatoes, string beans and cucumbers were very much smaller, while loadings of grapefruit, sweet potatoes, tomatoes and watermelons were heavier. It is interesting to note that 120 cars of watermelons were shipped in May, whereas the first car moved on June 2 last year.

"Prices declined steadily as might be expected at this time of the year. Potatoes dropped more than $1 per hundred pounds for new stock and tomatoes declined $2 per box. Losses were also recorded for corn, carrots, string beans, cucumbers and onions."

FIRST MARRIAGE LICENSE ISSUED UNDER NEW LAW

It was learned Wednesday upon a perusal of the records at the Navarro county courthouse that the distinction of being the first couple to be married on marriage licenses secured in Navarro county under the new law which went into effect last week goes to Andrew Robinson and Miss Mattie Gertrude Coker, who procured their license early Monday morning, the first license issued.

The couple went to Judge W. W. Clopton's office where the judge took the marriage bond a few minutes after the marriage license was issued at the county clerk's office, and Judge Clopton "stole a march" on the seven other justices of the peace, county judge and district judge to say nothing of the scores of ministers, rabbis, priests and others authorized by law to perform marriage ceremonies.

Poem Of Man Who Knew God Is Now Deathless Literature

Ancient Hebrew Classic Still Voices Mood Of Myriads — Themes That Set Souls To Singing — A Modern Contrast

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS

Throwing down, with a gesture of impatience, a recent issue of one of the famous magazines, a man said in my hearing, "There's nothing in it." Then, through with the "pioneer" stuff. These writers seem to be chewing at their own souls; but they are only 'chewing the rag.' They get nowhere and point nowhere. Here this editor makes a great splash about his articles on religion; but they are nothing but highbrow speculation, with no gleam or glow of reality and experience in them. So I'm through. For my part, I am going back to the old books, which were written by men who knew something and believed something."

That protest will find an echo in many minds. Most of the stuff that is being printed,—to the effect, "What's the matter with the church? What's the matter with the younger generation? What's the matter with women? What's the matter with the country? What's the matter with the world? It is juiceless and dusty old straw. There is no nutrition in it. The public have grown tired of these sterile negotiations. We have had enough of dour, criticalism theories, of vague, clear affirmations, of inflexibility, the sort of faith that gets sturdy living. To follow modern literature one would infer that God belongs only in the question department, next to the crossword puzzles.

Noah Webster At Amherst So we turn with relief to the great and deathless writings of the poets and philosophers and preachers and novelists of the past. They had a first-hand knowledge of God. Their wisdom was all related to this changeless central reality. On the campus of Amherst College stands a remarkable statue of Noah Webster, the lexicographer; and the inscription upon it has nothing to do with philology; for it is a quotation from St. Paul—"I know whom I have believed." Ah, that's it; we listen to the men and women who know whom they have believed, and not to those who are merely speculating about what they think.

Because they sound this note of personal experience and of clear-cut affirmation, the poems of the ancient Hebrews are today more widely read than all the output of modern verse. The aspirations and needs of the man of today are more fully expressed and met by the ageless Psalms than by any recent writings. When the soul is stirred by any mood it finds its clearest expression in these poems which have survived twenty-five centuries.

Israel's Sweet Singer
In point of the poem which is the present Sunday school lesson, it was written by King David, "The sweet singer of Israel," who wrought more mightily by his songs than by his regal wisdom. Out of his tempestuous and crowded life, Greek, Jewish, Idle, and poseur, as he plucked the eternal significance. To him, God was the supreme reality. Whether he was up or whether he was down, his life was related to Jehovah. From the heights and from the depths, in the sunshine or in the shadow, David saw God; and so got hold of life's innermost meaning. For if existence means aught to mortal it means it in relation to the Infinite Being who is the Source and our Destiny.

Suppose we quote the first fourteen verses of this One Hundred and Third Psalm, as recently translated anew from the Hebrew by Dr. Moffatt:

"Bless the Eternal, O my soul, let all my being bless his sacred name; Bless the Eternal, O my soul, remember all his benefits; he pardons all your sins, and all sickness he heals, he saves your life from death, he crowns you with his love and pity, he gives you all your heart's desire, renewing your youth like an eagle's."

The Eternal vindicates the cause of any who are wronged; let any let Moses see this purpose, and Israel his methods.

The Eternal is pitiful and gracious slow to be angry, rich in love; he will not always chafe, he will not hold to his anger for a long time;

he treats us not according to our sins; he deals not with us as our guilt deserves;

but, high as heaven is over earth, so vast his love is to his worshippers;

far as the east is from the west, so far he puts our sins away from us.

As a father pities his children, so the Eternal pities his worshippers;

he knows what we are made of, he remembers we are dust."

The Ignored Millions

As a simple matter of fact, let it be noted that there are many millions of persons who regularly turn to this Psalm, and others in the same group, for an expression of their deepest feelings. No new paper or other publication is ever lacking like the number of regular readers of the Psalms. These quiet Christians, most of whom do not even know of the existence of the sort of modern literature at which the man I have quoted grew so impatient, make up the great body of life. They do not write to the editors or make public speeches.

They are the plain folk, who believe in God, who are accustomed to pray and to read the Bible and support the church. To them, God is the great Reality and the supreme Authority.

These are the ignored millions of our time. Their existence would be almost unsuspected by the casual reader of the daily press and the current magazines. They support the church and the philanthropies; they train the children and maintain patriotism; and they provide the preponderating moral sentiment which keeps civilization safe. These are the mothers and the homemakers, whose上帝 is a very real God. They are the fathers who carry on life's hard battle in the consciousness that God also is a Father. Such are the unregarded feelings of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.—Hebrews 4:15.

HOLESALE ESCAPE OF DESPERATE MEN FROM STATE FARM

The guard started to argue, calling for time, and another convict, armed with an automatic pistol came up behind him. This man was Robert Massey, serving three years for theft from Galveston county, farm officials said.

Confronted with two armed convicts, the guard surrendered.

The guard's gun was taken from him and the two convicts, accompanied by Frank Jones, serving 6 years for robbery from Dallas county, roused the prisoners in their side of the picket.

The three ring leaders invited all who wanted to accompany them on a dash for liberty to come along. Forty others stepped forth and the convicts invaded the other side of the picket.

Many Refuse Escape

On that side were two more guards who were quartered in the midst of the prisoners. They were quickly surrounded by the milling convicts and forced to hand over their guns.

Some 150 more convicts held aloof from the break, refusing to try for freedom.

The others, led by Williams, Massey and Jones, used the guards' keys to unlock the doors to the barracks and escape.

Before long, though, the three ringleaders cautioned the loyal convicts to be quiet.

"Don't make any noise and stay inside this building," they were warned, the threats being accompanied by a show of pistols.

Once outside the men scattered in the darkness.

The five who had been captured at noon were D. W. Dodgen, W. A. Hickey, Gene Lowrie, L. L. Ray and Johnnie Sullivan. Where they were sent up from and the nature of their sentences could not be learned. Farm officials were too busy with their manhunt to fool with records, they said.

BRAZORIA, June 20.—(P)—Forty-four desperate convicts kidnapped three guards at the Clemens state prison farm near here today and escaped.

A few hours later three of them had been recaptured, two of them after they had been shot by a cattleman living in this vicinity of the farm.

The other 41 are believed to have scattered and fled through the dense underbrush of the Brazos River bottoms.

The break came about 3:15 a.m. One of the convicts secured a pistol in some unknown manner and held up the guards inside the barracks where they were quartered.

Take Guard's Gun
The convicts took the guard's gun and with the aid of the others in the barracks overpowered two more guards at the farm. There are two barracks at the farm. One of them houses 42 of the most desperate convicts. The other houses 150 or more who are not regarded as being dangerous. The first break occurred at the barracks that housed the 42.

According to prison officials, the ring leader of the break, whose name is not known, unshackled the men in his barracks and invited them all to make a dash for freedom.

Rushing from the camp, the freed convicts opened the doors to the other barracks and invited others to come along. Only two of the men in the larger barracks are said to have accepted.

"All right then you ----," the convict leader is said to have exclaimed, "stay here and be quiet about it."

Fled Toward Bottoms.

The men then fled from the farm in the direction of the bottom lands.

About an hour elapsed while the freed convicts who had decided to stay in the camp, sat around, fearing to give the alarm.

Finally a trusty entered from the barracks and ran to the alarm bell nearby. He pulled the bell cord hard, and in a few minutes other guards and officials of the camp came running.

Alarms immediately were sent over the countryside. Peace officers formed posses.

Three of the men came upon a negro at Hinkle Ferry, a few miles away. They forced the negro from the car, took five shots at him and started down the road.

Cattleman Shoots Two

The negro ran to the home of a cattleman named Hinkle who armed himself with a shot gun and joined the chase. A few miles down the road he came upon the stalled car of the negroes with the convicts trying to fix it. He opened fire on them and wounded two, recapturing them.

The third man to be recaptured was caught by the bloodhounds in

Another Unloaded Gun Fatal to Boy

CHICAGO, June 20.—(P)—"Tell show you how I shoot a burglar," laughed Mrs. Jeannette Angolone at a group of friends at her home last night.

"Please don't," shuddered one of her guests. "It isn't loaded," smiled Mrs. Angolone.

But it was. Her three-year-old son, Leonard, today was in a hospital, dying, a bullet in his head.

fectives, said today that Dr. Frank H. Snook had admitted he got a key from the key ring of Miss Theria K. Hix, slain Ohio State co-ed, at the spot where her body was found last Friday. The key was to the room which they shared jointly and which Snook surrendered to the ladyland shortly before the girl's body was identified Friday.

Shellenberger said that such a report was made to him by Detective Otto Phillips, who was in the room with County Prosecutor John J. Chester, where Dr. Snook was questioned.

Phillips said he was questioning Dr. Snook about the key which was missing from the ring. Dr. Snook, he said, replied that he had given the key from the girl Wednesday and returned it to her Thursday.

Then Phillips asked:

"Where did you get that key before you turned it in Friday?"

Phillips quoted Dr. Snook as saying: "You know where I got it."

"At the body?" Phillips asked, and he quoted the professor as answering "yes."

Attorney John Sidell conferred with his client at the jail for a short time then said to newspapermen, "They say he has confessed. Snook, however, denies it to me. What is the situation, anyway? Until he tells me with his own lips that he killed the girl and how he killed her, I will not believe it."

The three guards that were forced to accompany the men were taken about 10 or 15 miles from the farm, and one of them was forced to change clothes with a convict. The guards were released and made their way back to the prison farm.

"The wet press," he declared, "is doing more to destroy prohibition and break down law enforcement than all other wet forces combined."

dry or both parties that shootings by enforcement officers were being exaggerated as part of a wet propaganda drive.

While the senate was talking, information was made public that federal agents, embarking upon a new scheme of enforcement, had camped for a week in the woods of Maryland and in that period had dried up the channel through which thousands of gallons of moonshine had flowed daily into the national capital.

The agents made a number of arrests and confiscated a dozen or more stills, the largest with a capacity of 800 gallons a day. It was indicated this campaign had been successful that others of a similar nature would be inaugurated.

Must Stop Using Guns.

As the discussions over the shootings by dry officers continued Police Chief J. L. Beavers of Atlanta, issued orders to men that they must stop using firearms against persons even though they be carrying contraband liquor.

"Your pistol is to be used in defense of your life or that of another citizen," his order said, "and is not to be discharged at people whom you suspect or even know to be carrying whiskey."

The rum war broke out on the Detroit river with federal and smugglers' craft engaging in a lively, but harmless exchange of gun fire. Police Chief James D. Proctor of Sandwich, Ontario, announced he had called to the attention of the secretary of external affairs at Ottawa that some innocent person may be hurt or killed if it (the firing) continues.

He was referring, however, not to the newest outbreak, but to a recent shooting in which he said an American government patrol boat opened fire with a machine gun on a suspected rum craft.

BISHOP CANNON SEES NEED NEW NEWSPAPERS

RICHMOND, June 20.—(P)—Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal church south, says this country needs a nation-wide chain of newspapers to uphold law enforcement.

In a speech here last night before a district conference of his church he described what he termed the attitude of "deliberate misrepresentation" on the part of the secular press of the country toward prohibition enforcement and what he said was its "positive refusal" to support President Hoover's appeal for respect for the dry law.

Press is Blamed.

FREMONT, Nebr., June 20.—(P)—Newspapers with anti-prohibition tendencies were branded as "disrespectful, disloyal and indiscriminate" by the Rev. F. C. High, superintendent of the Nebraska anti-saloon league, speaking before the Nebraska Christian Endeavor workers annual convention here last night.

"The wet press," he declared, "is doing more to destroy prohibition and break down law enforcement than all other wet forces combined."

as an attempt to give the prison board, which already has made up its mind, added authority."

Wirtz said he did not believe the prison board should be part of the relocation committee, but submitted to the wishes of administration leaders in the interest of harmony and in the hope of solving the prison problem.

Senator Tom DeBerry, Gogota, suggested that the committee should be given longer time in which to make the survey, but made no attempt to change the bill.

The measure carries an appropriation of $25,000 to complete the survey.

list were omitted. The affair was wholly official and not personal or social. The extending or acceptance of an invitation carries not even the faintest idea of social equality.

The social affairs are purely impersonal gestures of official courtesy.

The president had no slightest idea or intention of creating, destroying, or in any manner affecting existing social or racial lines or barriers."

The message was given out also reciting that "during the last democratic administration, from 1913 to 1921, persons of negro blood were on various occasions invited to the White House and, on several occasions, sat at the White House table. The then minister from Haiti, Solonmenos, and his wife, both negroes, were invited to and attended diplomatic dinners at the White House on a number of occasions.

Pat H. Hooks of Irasco, an alumnus of Austin College and a member of its board for a number of years, was elected to succeed Judge Blanding as president. Mr. Hooks has not yet accepted the chairmanship.

Judge Blanding, who remains a member of that organization for two occasions, was unaccompanied.

"Your magnificent example of courage, of tenacity, of science as a pilot and navigator, guided us every instant of our route. We address to you our most cordial respects."

Creager Gives Directions

The Creager telegram suggested the resolution be returned to the house and senate for reconsideration.

"It might also with propriety be suggested to the gentlemen of the legislature that in the future they confine their attacks to Mr. Hoover as such an attack upon the lady who presides over the White House ill comports with the traditional chivalry of the South," it said.

"Our dead president, whom the American people loved and honored, was not and should not be criticized and condemned for his purely official and impersonal action in receiving these negroes. It must be kept in mind that he was as Mr. Hoover is, the president of all the American people.

"Texas and the South will not and can not profit by the preaching of a doctrine of hate."

as an attempt to give the prison board, which already has made up its mind, added authority."

Wirtz said he did not believe the prison board should be part of the relocation committee, but submitted to the wishes of administration leaders in the interest of harmony and in the hope of solving the prison problem.

Senator Tom DeBerry, Gogota, suggested that the committee should be given longer time in which to make the survey, but made no attempt to change the bill.

The measure carries an appropriation of $25,000 to complete the survey.

QUARREL DURING POKER GAME COST NEGRO HIS LIFE

MEXIA, June 19.—(Spl.)—J. O. Stevens, Point Enterprise farmer, is well pleased with his first month in the dairy business as a sideline to his cotton farm. He has five hogs, three of them, half-grown, three months old, but in his first month he netted $43.34, after paying his feed bill, and also made $12 on two hogs to which he fed some of the skim milk.

The cream brought him $3.04. The feed bill was $10.40, leaving a profit of $43.34. After throwing away the skim milk for a week, Stevens bought two hogs and fed them the surplus. He sold them in three weeks for 12 profit. He plans to keep hogs and chickens on the skim milk and sell the cream.

THE HOME PAPER.

Men everywhere are coming more and more to understand and appreciate the influence of the home town paper in the affairs of this country.

Only a few years ago we were told that the local newspaper was passing—that it could not compete with the dailies and weeklies of the big cities—and that it must yield to the inevitable.

But the prophets were wrong.

The local paper is still with us, and it is growing in strength and usefulness as the years go by. Some of the reasons for its existence are summed up in this paragraph from an exchange:

The local paper should be found in every home. No children should grow up ignorant who can be taught to appreciate the home paper. It is said to be the stepping stone of intelligence in all those matters not to be found in books. Give your children foreign paper which contains not a word about any person, place or thing, which they saw or perhaps ever heard of, and how could you expect them to be interested. But let them have the home paper and read of people whom they meet and of places of which they are familiar and soon an interest is awakened which increases with every arrival of the paper. Thus a habit of reading is formed and those children will read the paper all their lives and become intelligent men and women, a credit to their ancestors, strong in the knowledge of the world as it is today.

UNDESIRABLE CENSUS CHANGES.

The house has not improved the census and apportionment bill by the changes it has made in the measure as it passed the senate. In addition to adopting a provision of doubtful constitutionality by proposing to exclude aliens from the count, it made an unjustified alteration by postponing the date for taking the census from November next to May, 1930.

Prior to the 1920 census, enumerations had been generally taken in the spring or summer, but experience showed that it was an unfavorable time for many reasons for obtaining accurate information and that generally throughout the country population was more on the move than in the fall or winter.

The scruple about the constitutionality of taking two censuses within the decade if the enumeration were moved back a month or so into 1929, is rather absurd in a body that has disregarded plain constitutional mandate on apportionment for nearly 10 years.

There is also no sound reason for eliminating the count on radio sets. The radio industry is new and has grown to vast proportions; there is public interest and utility in taking the opportunity of the recurrence of the census to find out how many listening instruments are in existence; it would assist the radio commission in passing on broadcasting license applications and aid congress in the consideration of future radio legislation.

Youth of today are the same they were 50 years ago, according to the dean of Purdue. And that comes close to being the worst indictment of all.

Now that England has gone Socialist, Big Bill Thompson, of Chicago, will have to revise his campaign plan and scare up a red bugaboo.

Modern bathing suits, fortunately, presuppose the addition of a coat of tan.

"DO IT NOW."

CORSICANA AIRPORT.

In a recent cover page editorial the Manufacturers Record makes some suggestions that are worth some serious thought. As set forth in the editorial those having in mind to make plant and building improvements should not delay but make these improvements at once. It is pointed out by the writer that should such a plan of action be pursued throughout the country many men would be given needed employment.

The editorial in full follows:

"Great prosperity in many interests, lack of it in some, and much unemployment throughout the country, characterizes the present business situation.

"Many men are seeking employment. Some have been thrown out of work by reason of revolutionizing changes in machinery and in methods, some by reason of agricultural conditions. Never was there a more pressing opportunity for the federal government to put into operation the plan suggested by Mr. Hoover to rush all government construction whenever business was slack.

"There is a vast amount of work the government must do and, under the circumstances, should do as quickly as possible. Somehow the responsibility rests upon the federal government, upon state and municipal governments, upon business people generally to do everything in their power to furnish work for idle men. There is a surplus of labor, both of men and women, throughout the country. It behoves President Hoover and Congress and all others in official position, and business men generally, to do everything possible to create employment.

"To the extent of his ability every man is responsible to help his brother man; and a sadder spectacle than a man seeking work and unable to get it, seeing his family suffer for food, it would be hard to find. Therefore, let federal, state and municipal governments and individual men and corporations, make a definite study to see to what extent they can help to create employment at profitable wages for the men and women who now seek work in vain.

"Prosperity for some, with poverty for many, is somehow a reflection upon our civilization. As a nation we have not always been individually and collectively as deeply concerned for the profitable employment of men and women as we should be. In this respect we have to a large extent failed to realize that each one of us is 'our brother's keeper.'

"If your plant needs re-equipment, do it now.

"If your house needs painting or repairing and you have the money, do it now.

"If you plan to build a store or a dwelling and have the money to do it, do it now.

"If city streets need repaving or repairing, do it now.

"Don't put off any work which needs to be done and for which you have the available funds, but do it now and thus swell the volume of employment until prosperity reaches down to every willing worker. Humanity demands that of everyone."

SENATE RESOLUTION PASSED BY 99 TO 10 VOTE LOWER HOUSE

AUSTIN, June 18. (AP)—The house of representatives today adopted the senate concurrent resolution rebuking Mrs. Herbert Hoover, for receiving a negro congressman's wife at a white house tea. The vote was 99 to 10.

Those voting against it were: Representatives Walter Book of Fort Worth; W. R. Bounds, Hubbard; G. C. Coltrin, Mathis; B. J. Forbes, Weatherford; Julian Harrison, El Paso; R. L. Kincaid, Crowley; G. Y. Lee, Eden; M. E. O'Neill, Frisco; E. P. Shelton, Dripping Springs and Alex Bruce, Sulphur Springs.

Representative Reno Eickenroth of Seguin, only republican member of the house, before the vote, expressed his intention of voting for the resolution. He said he was born in the district he served, that his father before him was born there, and that both of his grandfathers served on the side of the Confederacy in the Civil war.

"I merely want to express the hope that this resolution passes," he said.

Representative George C. Purl, Dallas, and Representative Forbes, made an effort to obtain a division of the resolution, but were ruled against by the speaker.

Democrat Warned.

They sought to have stricken from the resolution the last resolving clause, which called attention of the voters of the South that such incidents are the natural result of the actions of the pretended democrats of the South in being led away from the faith of their fathers and that they be warned that a continuance of such alliance with the party which since civil war days has been the traditional enemy of the South will likely bring further shame and humiliation to Southern men and women.

The resolution proposed that members of the senate and house "bow our heads in shame and regret and express in the strongest and most emphatic terms at our command, our condemnation and humiliation at said conduct, if true, on the part of the mistress of the white house, and her associates."

Miss Marion Markham, who has been the guest of Miss Enny Nell Stroud for the past week, left the city Tuesday for her home in Kosse.

Corsicana is fortunate in having such a modernly equipped airport under the management of such a competent pilot.

Remember, you are only a few hours by air from any point in Texas you may desire to visit.

REAL FARM RELIEF.

Fifteen farmers whose land is rightly located between Pittsburgh and Washington are offered a chance to make a hay crop pay them two prices. The air mail needs emergency landing fields; and since aviators have no serious objections to sitting down in a hay field, the government hopes to persuade a few farmers to set sufficient acreage for hay to provide safe landings for mail planes.

The real beauty of the proposition is that the farmers will be paid for the hay by the government and may keep the hay, which is a perfect example of eating your cake and having it at the same time. As a farm-relief measure this probably beats anything yet offered. The only thing wrong with it is that it cannot be made universal in application and is somewhat opposed to the theory of crop diversification.

In spite of these drawbacks, there will probably be 15 farmers who will not look such a gift horse in the mouth and may even become positively "air-minded" in their enthusiasm for the suggestion.

Find Child Chained In Dark Basement and Practically Starving

GARY, Ind., June 18. (AP)—Police, investigating a child's screams, entered the dark basement of the Jo'n Juhre home yesterday and found George Juhre, nine years old, in chains. The boy said he had been in prison nine days, living only on bread and black coffee which his six-year-old sister had brought daily. The boy's father was arrested and held on a charge of contributing to the child's delinquency.

CONTRACT IS LET FOR HANDSOME HOME IN MILLS ADDITION

Announcement was made Monday afternoon that the contract for the erection of a handsome home for Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. McKee in Mills Place had been let to John R. Carson, local contractor, and work on the building of the new home is to begin at once and will be rushed to completion as rapidly as consistent with good building methods. The permit taken out by the city engineer's office calls for an outlet of not less than $50,000 for the house.

David R. Williams is architect.

The new home which is expected to be a very handsome addition to the many handsome homes already occupying this popular and exclusive addition, will occupy the large lot of more than 300 feet frontage on the Mills Place street, which is known as Twenty-second street on the city map. It will be a large rambling two-story structure and will be so designed as to save all the large trees on the lot possible.

Mr. Williams, who is known as one of the foremost exponents of what is known as truly Texas architecture, has so designed the house that it will cover large part of the lot and will not cause the loss of the big oak trees that adorn the grounds. The home will be the latest in modern architecture and construction and will have every appliance that goes to make a home complete in this day of the ultra-modern life.

Material to be used will be brick stone and stucco and the house will be of a modified Spanish element running throughout. Mr. Carson stated work was started Tuesday on the home.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our thanks to the good people of Purdon who were so good to us in the sickness and death of our husband and father. May God's richest blessings rest upon each one of our prayer.

NEWTON BURNETT TO DEFEND TITLE VS. BILLIE COULSON FRIDAY

SONNY POINDEXTER WILL PLAY AGAINST RANDOLPH JACKSON

ALL MATCHES EXPECTED TO BE COMPLETED BY NEXT SUNDAY NIGHT

BY PAUL MOORE.

It will be youth vs. youth in the championship match of thirty-six holes for first honors in the first flight of the all-city golf tournament under way at the Country Club between Newton Burnett, defending two-time champion, and Billie Coulson, challenger, Friday, in what promises to be one of the most interesting matches in the tournament history of the Country Club. Both players have their supporters and one who leans toward the defending champion does not hesitate to predict a victory while one of the golfers who has picked Coulson is equally certain that Burnett will be shot from the pinhead he has occupied in local golfing circles and that the small Billie will win. It should be a match worth going miles to see.

Both have come through grueling competition in the first flight, although Burnett has not been forced as hard as Coulson. Burnett has defeated Lynn Adams, J. D. Cunningham and Ray Smith. Coulson has eliminated Tom Pinkston, A. H. Kerr and H. O. Blanding, three seasoned veterans of the links who have been first flighters, semi-finalists and finalists for years.

The thirty-six hole match will be played in two 18-hole matches, one round to be played during the morning and the remaining 18-hole competition in the afternoon.

Win Way to Finals.

Burnett won his way into the final Wednesday afternoon when he defeated Ray Smith, 4 and 3, and Coulson entered the final by defeating H. O. Blanding, 2 and 1. Blanding has been playing unusual golf during the last few weeks and gave Coulson a run for his money.

With the defeat of Blanding Wednesday afternoon by Coulson, the last of the veteran golfers of the Country Club was eliminated and left the championship to be fought out between two kids. The old adage of golf being an "old man's game" is dispelled for the present at least, the sixteen players of the first flight, five were youngsters. Two of the youngsters were eliminated by other young golfers and Blanding beat one of the high school boys but was forced to turn in a 74 to do it. There were eleven veteran golfers in the first flight. Only four remained after the first round results were tabulated. At the end of the second round of competition, H. O. Blanding was the only veteran left; Burnett, Coulson and Smith eliminating the three veterans against whom they were pitted.

A large gallery is expected to follow the Coulson-Burnett championship match.

Second Flight.

Burnett, another high school lad, who almost made a first flight qualifying score, Wednesday afternoon demonstrated that he will be among the leading youngsters shortly when he downed John C. Calhoun, veteran, 7 and 6, in their semi-final match in the second flight and earned the right to meet Randolph Jackson in the championship play-off. This match is expected to be played Friday or Saturday, but early Wednesday morning the contestants had not decided.

Third Flight.

W. E. (Zeke) Slaughter went into the finals in the third flight when he defeated Sam H. Slay, 5 to 4. Alexander Hickey, another high school performer, plays J. D. Hathorn in the other semi-final match and the winner will meet Slaughter for the title.

Fourth Flight.

Ned Blowers was awarded the second round match against Wm. J. Rochelle by default. Rochelle is away on his vacation. Brownlee is to play Albert Levy Thursday or Friday afternoon.

City Commissioners W. Pat Brown and W. C. Stroube are to play Thursday and the winner will play Jim B. Robinson in the semi-finals. Robinson won his way into the semi-finals Wednesday afternoon by defeating John Slay or Frost, 3 and 5.

Fifth Flight.

John Keathley went to the finals of the fifth flight with a victory over L. Seale. Fostus Pierce and Jack Boltz are to play their second round match and the winner will play R. A. Caldwell for the right to enter the final match with Brennan.

First Flight Consolations.

C. C. Cunningham was the winner over Lynn Adams by default and meets J. N. Garity. The result of the Cunningham-Garity argument will meet W. A. (Rip) Lang for the consolation championship.

Second Flight Consolations.

M. Kerr defeated M. Nolen and will meet H. D. Fillers in the semi-finals. Henry Walker defeated A. D. McMichael Wednesday afternoon and will meet W. Roy Christian in the other semi-final play in this consolation.

Third Flight Consolations.

Maurice Keathley has defeated John C. Hughes and will meet Sam J. Jackson in their semi-final. S. H. Burnett and W. C. McClellan are to meet and the winner is to be placed against R. L. Hill.

Fourth Flight Consolations.

David Shepperson defeated Bill Cheney and P. Martin Baker and Lee Wiley of Dallas have not played. Baker is in Kentucky and it is likely that Shepperson will advance to the finals by default. T. C. Cash and R. L. McGlasson are to play and the winner will meet Jack Cunningham in the other semi-final.

Fifth Flight Consolations.

J. H. Roberts defeated C. L. Holmes, 6 and 3, Wednesday afternoon for the fifth flight consolations championship.

The tournament has been carried out in fine fashion with most of the matches being played on schedule or before. However, several matches have not been played due to participants being out of town.

The Juniors are composed of a group of splendid young baseball players and are expected to give the Groesbeck nine a run for the money in the bi-county tilt.

The winner of the game Saturday afternoon will be pitted against one of the nearby bi-county winners in the district game, it was announced.

Cat Owners to View Class D Clubs; May Purchase Interest

FORT WORTH, June 20.—(P)—A representative of the local club of the Texas league will make a tour of the West Texas League within a short time to determine the advisability of taking over the operation of one of the teams in the Class D circuit.

It is believed the Cats will purchase a foothold in the league the latter half of this season or next spring.

Manager Jake Atz always has a string of youngsters to watch, and he would like to have them where he can look over the crop ever so often.

Each of the 24 straight victories in 1922 was played here, and all but three of the 17 straight last year were won on home soil, but only three of the recent streaks were played before a friendly audience. Eight were won on foreign fields.

Last year's 17-game spurge, ending when Jimmy Walkup outpitched Bill Shores, 7 to 3, won the second half title for the Spuds. The 1922 streak was halted by the famous "Cresote" game, in which the Dallas club claimed its star.

Mr. Mrs. Pharr's home in this city is on the border of the two states. She won the Texas crown when the Arkansas players raised a complaint, produced her certificate of residence in Arkansas.

Mrs. Pharr held the Arkansas title in 1923 and again in 1927. She lost in the finals of 1928 and came back this year to conquer Mrs. Jack Vilas of Hot Springs.

MEXICO CITY, June 20.—(P)—Those interested in the negotiations looking toward settlement of the religious question in Mexico were frankly worried today at the lack of an answer from the Vatican on the terms under consideration.

Roaming the Realm of County Sports

BY DELMORE OLSEN.

In our opinion, the American Legion is doing a great work in sponsoring this National Baseball League, as it affords to a large number of youngsters a chance top play baseball and to take short trips for the right to enter the semi-finals against M. S. Cook. The match was begun last Monday afternoon and was called off after each player had won one set and the count 4-2 in favor of Levi, only three on the third and deciding set stood games were needed to determine the winner Wednesday.

According to a report coming from the Citizens Military Training camp at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Red Murphy is showing considerable talent in hitting the old apple far and wide off of the opposing Uncle Sam twirlers. In a game played recently between two company teams, Red was the leading hitter of the day and incidentally the leading scorer.

In another upset in the tourney, L. L. Levy defeated Walter Lewis two out of three sets Wednesday to enter the semi-finals. M. S. Cook and Levi play Thursday afternoon for the right to meet John Shepard in the finals which will be played in the next day or two.

It was stated Wednesday morning by the state director that the Texas entry had never been successful in going farther than the sectional games each year, the Oklahoma entry defeating the Lone Star champions with monotonous regularity and that he hoped one of the Texas teams would be successful in going to the regional games at least in the current year. We hope so too, and hope the Corsicana Cotton Millers advance a long ways in the state running.

Saturday afternoon, the Corsicana Cotton Mill junior team, champions of Navarro county in the American Legion Junior Baseball League, Journey to Groesbeck to play the American Legion team there for the bi-county championship. The local team plays a double up game of baseball, according to reports of those witnessing the team in action and are accorded an even break to bring home the bi-county title.

In many respects, the city tennis tourney has been interesting, in the first place, the largest number of ambitious racket wielders to ever enter a tourney in Corsicana entered. The next interesting happening of the play was the great heights of getting to the final and the defeat of Walter Lewis by L. L. Levy, a veteran of courts who can place the ball where he wants to.

Baseball games scheduled for Saturday in Navarro county between amateur nines include a game at the Municipal Park between the Mac-Miller nine and the strong Blooming Grove Independents who handed the local amateurs an 8-7 cleanin in Blooming Grove recently and a set-to in Dawson with the Purdon town team furnishing the opposition for the Dawsonites.

Assistant Secretary Lowman at Washington said the firing on the patrol boat indicated the desperate class of men with whom the customs service had to deal. He said the treasury cannot send unarmed men against such criminals and does not intend to disarm customs agents.

Stimson Seeks Report

WASHINGTON, June 20.—(P)—Secretary Stimson has asked the treasury department to give him a full report on the firing on a customs patrol boat on the Detroit river by rum smugglers.

Reports reaching Washington have been that rum runners fired on a customs patrol boat near the American shore and then fled into Canadian waters. Assistant Secretary Lowman has pointed to the incident as bearing out the necessity of having customs agents carry arms.

Secretary Stimson did not indicate what disposition would be made by the state department of the report on the shooting nor did he disclose whether the American government would make any inquiry of Canada concerning the incident.

George Crook, chairman of the program committee for the day, then conducted an interesting contest on an "Indian Head" penny, listing a number of items that were to be found on the coin. Charlton Gunter was declared the winner with fourteen correct answers and was awarded a "Yo-Yo" for his efforts.

J. L. Cobb was the associate program chairman for the day.

J. Wilson David, chairman of the nominating committee presented the following slate for officers of the club for the ensuing year: president, Festus A. Pierce; first vice-president, George M. Crook; second vice-president, J. C. Young; treasurer, Finis L. Seale; secretary, Charlton Gunter; with the two immediate past presidents and the cabinet making up the board of directors.

As aluminum oxide, however, would produce a colorless stone, other metallic oxides are added to obtain the various shades of red, blue, yellow, brown or orange. This coloring process, however, is kept a secret as is also the system for regulating the flame necessary to turn out the stones in the shortest time. On average a 300 carat stone is produced in from six to eight hours.

The cost is approximately one fourth of that of the genuine stone. The final market price is, of course, governed by the elaborateness of its cutting.

One of the strangest features of this plant turning out such a large supply of the world's ornaments and industrial articles is the non-dependence of human labor. Two or three workmen and the chemical engineer on duty are found sufficient to supervise and regulate the several hundred ovens in which the crystallizing process seems to go on automatically.

The same scarcity of workmen was noticeable at the dye trust's vast brown coal pit "Theodore" at Bitterfeld. There all labor has been mechanized to such a degree that 300 workmen suffice for the pit's annual output of 1,954,000 tons of brown coal.

In another plant of the "I. G. Farbenindustrie," products of magnesium alloyed to the extent of 70 per cent with aluminum are turned out in the shape of exceptionally hard and strong automobile wheels, airplane frames and piping in wholesale profusion.

L. L. LEVY DEFEATS WALTER LEWIS FOR SEMI-FINAL ENTRY

There was little activity in the city wide semi-tournament Wednesday afternoon. In the only match played L. L. Levy defeated Walter Lewis two out of three sets for the right to enter the semi-finals against M. S. Cook. The match was begun last Monday afternoon and was called off after each player had won one set and the count 4-2 in favor of Levi, only three on the third and deciding set stood games were needed to determine the winner Wednesday.

In the other match scheduled to be played Wednesday afternoon John Shepard was unable to play on account of a burned hand. The match will be completed in the next few days as soon as Shepard's hand heals.

M. S. Cook and L. L. Levy are scheduled to play Thursday afternoon to determine the finalist in the lower bracket. The match is scheduled to be played on the city park court at 5 o'clock.

BORDER GUARDSMEN SEEK GANG FIRING ON U. S. PATROL

SECRETARY STIMSON ASKS
FOR FULL REPORT ON WED-NESDAY'S INCIDENT

WINDSOR, Ont., June 20.—(P)—United States customs officials today sought a gang of rum runners from East Side Detroit whom they accuse of attacking a customs patrol boat off the waterfront of Detroit yesterday. Several shots struck the prow of the patrol boat but none of its crew was hit.

A running fight ensued as the customs men returned the fire and started in pursuit. The rum runners, keeping up their fire, escaped into Canadian waters.

Assistant Secretary Lowman at Washington said the firing on the patrol boat indicated the desperate class of men with whom the customs service had to deal. He said the treasury cannot send unarmed men against such criminals and does not intend

HOOVER'S APPEAL CAUSES SURPRISE AT MANY POINTS

CO-OPERATION PROMISED, HOWEVER, TO ENFORCE PROHIBITION LAWS

ALBANY, N. Y., June 19.—(P)—President Hoover's appeal to communities along the Canadian border "to help the treasury to prevent the systematic war being waged by international criminals against the laws of this country," caused considerable surprise in some quarters of the borderland yesterday.

Officials of cities along the international line, as well as in many others in Northern New York, quickly promised co-operation.

John H. McCaulley of Plattsburgh, near which Arthur Gordon, 22, of that city was shot fatally last Saturday, said:

"The city of Plattsburgh has at all times stood ready to aid federal authorities in enforcement of law."

The president's appeal "came as a distinct surprise to residents here," said Police Chief Herbert S. Myers of Ogdensburg, "there has been, of course, spasmodic liquor running and alien smuggling along the Canadian border, but this reference to a systematic war is the first we have heard about it."

Major C. Wilson, mayor of Rochester, said:

"We will be very glad to cooperate in any way to enforce any and all laws, including the prohibition law. We are doing our utmost to do so at the present time and intend to continue."

Major Paul Weiss of Dunkirk, said:

"We aid the government in all ways possible to stop this nefarious traffic (in liquor), and we will continue to do so."

Co-operation Pledged

DETROIT, June 19.—(P)—Mayor John C. Lodge of Detroit and mayors of Ecorse, Trenton and River Rouge, suburban cities, have pledged co-operation of municipal authorities with federal agents in efforts to enforce prohibition and control laws in this region.

At the same time, however, the executives called attention to the necessity of safeguarding lives of innocent persons.

John R. Watkins, United States district attorney at Detroit declared rum runners are deliberately trying to ferment friction between the United States and Canadian authorities by rumors of promiscuous shootings by customs officers and coast guardmen in an attempt to enlist public sentiment against the river blockade.

Mr. Watkins urged the public to await the full facts before accepting rumors and said that in all recent reports of shootings in this district no citizen engaged in "legitimate business" has been annoyed while on the river.

Church Offers Support

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(P)—President Hoover was assured today of the support of the Presbyterian church for his law observance and enforcement program.

This assurance was expressed by Dr. Cleland B. McAfee of Chicago, moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly and spokesman for its new national loyalty commission, which had an engagement with the president.

"We know of no division of sentiment in our church regarding your words of warning and challenge," Dr. McAfee said.

Society Leader Interested

PHILADELPHIA, June 19.—(P)—Mrs. George H. Strawbridge has started a movement among Philadelphia society leaders for a strict observance of the prohibition laws. She hopes the movement will become national in interest.

In a letter to a number of social leaders, she wrote:

"I am taking the liberty of addressing myself to you, as a representative Philadelphia woman, to inquire quite confidentially whether in your judgment it would be possible to constitute a committee of women of your own standing in the social world, who would interest themselves in creating sentiment for observance of the prohibition laws within their own circles."

Border Guard Ignored

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(P)—Louis Jacques, customs border patrolman at Detroit, quoted in the house by Representative Lancy of Michigan, as having said he was told to "shut up" in connection with the recent stayings there by enforcement officers, today was gathered out of the office of Assistant Secretary Lowman of the treasury after Lowman had declared he would not consult with "man of that type."

Jacques, who recently resigned, was brought to Lowman's office by a Detroit newspaper man. The secretary said he knew the details of the case, and there was no need of their being explained.

Turning to the newspaper man, he asked:

"Is there anything more I can do for you?"

"No, unless you wish to consult with Mr. Jacques about the affair," replied the correspondent.

"I wouldn't consult with a man like that," Lowman replied. "He's resigned from the service, and he should have told his story to his superior officers, which I understand he did."

Lowman shook hands with the newspaper man and ushered him to Jacques to the door. Jacques said nothing.

Needs Moral Support

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(P)—President Hoover told members of the national loyalty commission of the Presbyterian church in the United States who called at the White House today that he feels the need of the moral support of the country in his campaign for obedience to laws.

The ministers and ruling elders composing the commission quoted the chief executive as having said that after all this was not a matter of politics or law, but of morals. They added that he said the chief thing was obedience to law and not solely a question of enforcement of law.

REVALUATION FUND GIVEN ROBISON FOR HIS PRIVATE USE

THIS IS TESTIMONY OF IMPORTANT WITNESS FOR DEFENSE WEDNESDAY

AUSTIN, June 19.—(P)—Taking the stand in behalf of J. T. Robison, commissioner of the general land office who faces ouster proceedings in the house, J. T. Hunter, Abilene, today defended the veteran state official in using for his own benefit part of the revaluation fund.

Hunter's testimony, which followed that of three other defense witnesses, marked first steps of respondents to refute allegations of incompetency and mishandling of state funds raised by witnesses for the prosecution.

The witness, for ten years county judge of Culberson county, declared that West Texas land owners had circulated petitions in 1928 in which they refused to accept any refund of the revaluation money, and asked Commissioner Robison to return it for their own use.

Not State Money.

"The legislature had refused to bear the cost of reassessing land values under the act of 1928," Hunter told the house sitting as a committee, and "we took the position that no part of the money should be paid the state."

Hunter exhibited a copy of one of several petitions which he said were circulated by himself and others who had contributed to the original revaluation fund. The petition was signed in April, 1928, Hunter said, in response to questioning by E. F. Smith of Robison's counsel.

Tracing the history of revaluation acts prior to the controversy between counsel, Hunter said up to 1905 it had been the policy of the state to withhold from sale school lands, which were leased to cattlemen in large tracts at comparatively little expense. In 1905 the policy was changed, and the lands were ordered sold by the legislature at home price.

Others Buy Tracts.

The tracts were bought on competitive bids, and many persons who did not understand dry conditions of the western country later sold their holdings to original ranch lessees. Physical conditions which twice caused the legislature to declare against forfeiture of land sales because of non-payment of interest continued. Hunter testified, until 1926. Then, at the instance of committees that came to Austin, the 1922 reappaisement was passed to correct an injustice done the plains section.

Commissioner Robison agreed to all provisions of the act except the section which named him as the sole member of a committee to reappraise values. The commissioner contended there should be others because he was so familiar with conditions of the cattle country he would have a tendency to be too liberal.

"We believed the average assessment value would be $1 an acre," Hunter said, but Mr. Robison set it at $1.50."

May Shorten Trial.

L. Kinder, Plainview, first witness for the respondent, brought an objection from house attorneys which may materially shorten the proceedings when he was asked about the veteran officials reputation in West Texas.

Robert Allen, house attorney, contend house attorneys had admitted the commissioner's good reputation up to the time of the alleged incompetent and illegal acts.

Representative Ed R. Sinks, acting as judge for the house, held that "the character witnesses would not strengthen what already has been admitted as a fact."

Robison's counsel also were blocked in their attempt to bring out from Kinder, a former district attorney and district judge, his legal opinion on the 1926 act.

Former Senator Julius Real, Kerrville, and his brother Robert, were other witnesses for the commissioner.

Both testified that the revaluation act was passed on account of the financial condition of West Texas prior to and during 1925 when drought struck the section and cattle prices were deflated.

APPROVAL OF POPE ONLY IS NEEDED TO SETTLE MEXICAN CONTROVERSY OVER RELIGION

MEXICO CITY, June 19.—(P)—The Mexican government and emissaries of the Vatican have agreed upon basis of settlement of the Mexican religious controversy. Approval of the Pope today was all that was needed to make the agreement effective, and permit an Episcopate order returning the priests to Mexican churches.

The settlement was reached Monday in the course of conferences between Ambassador Portes Gil and Archbishop Leopoldo Ruiz Y Flores of Michoacan and Bishop Pascual Diaz of Tabasco, with Ambassador Morrow as intermediary, does not involve constitutional changes, but merely a broader interpretation of the religious laws and their constitutional background.

The agreement is similar, if not indeed identical, to that reached last year in negotiations between President Calles and Archbishop Ruiz, which had their beginnings in a secret meeting in the old fortress at San Juan de Uula, island in the harbor at Vera Cruz.

Vatican approval at that time was delayed, until in July the assassination of Gen. Alvaro Obregon, president-elect, with ensuing charges of Roman Catholic participation, complicated the situation.

The settlement was reached Monday in the course of conferences between Ambassador Portes Gil and Archbishop Leopoldo Ruiz Y Flores of Michoacan and Bishop Pascual Diaz of Tabasco, with Ambassador Morrow as intermediary, does not involve constitutional changes, but merely a broader interpretation of the religious laws and their constitutional background.

An authoritative source stated today that unless the Vatican ratified the present settlement, and quickly, it is possible that there will be accomplished toward settlement for some time to come

DEFENSE OFFERS TESTIMONY IN ROBISON'S IMPEACHMENT CASE BEFORE TEXAS HOUSE

AUSTIN, June 19.—(P)—Testimony for J. T. Robison, commissioner of the General land office, respondent in charges proposing impeachment, pending before the house of representatives, was begun.

A motion to acquit Mr. Robison of "high crime and misdemeanor" and find him guilty of "indiscretion inconsistent with the proper conduct of public office" was rejected by the house yesterday, 70 to 40, after proponents of the charges had completed presentation of the testimony.

Representative S. E. Barnett of Greenville, who proposed immediate disposition of the charges without hearing from the respondent, would amount to merely a slap on the wrist."

Representatives Ray Holder of Dallas and J. C. Albritton of Yorkton contended it would be unfair even to reprimand the commissioner for failing to bring him guilty of indiscretion without first giving him a chance by the introduction of testimony to prove that he had not acted independently in the administration of his official duties.

Mrs. Alfred Holm, accompanied by her daughter, Hilma, and son Edwin Holm, former residents in Corsicana, were here Monday renewing old acquaintances. The party left early Tuesday for their home in Oklahoma City.

W. O. Wilson of Angus was in Corsicana Wednesday afternoon, attending to business.

MANY INDIVIDUALS AND FIRMS CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY ARE ALLEGED TO HAVE DISTRIBUTED BOGUS WHISKEY EQUIPMENT

NEW YORK, June 19. (AP)—One hundred and forty individuals and firms were under federal indictment today accused of participating in a nation-wide organization for the distribution of bogus whiskey equipment.

Special treasury agents said the conspiracy was the largest that had been uncovered with ramifications to score of cities.

The defendants are charged with conspiracy to violate the prohibitory act and to obstruct a federal law forbidding the attachment of spurious revenue stamps to containers of spirituous liquors.

This stock included shavings from the inside of whiskey barrels, used to flavor synthetic liquor, bottles blown in imitation of the containers of widely-known distilleries, labels, wrappers, corks, cases and bogus internal revenue stamps.

The firm of Gluckstein and Terrier in Brooklyn, one of those indicted, was said by federal agents to have been the headquarters of the ring.

Other cities where the organization operated included Boston, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Cleveland, St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Atlantic City, Miami, Albany and Syracuse, N. Y., Providence and Woonsocket, R. I., Stamford, New Haven, Conn., and Los Angeles.

The defendants include the Overhold Distillery Corporation, Inc., of Bradford, Pa., and the Sherwood Distilling company.

RUM RUNNERS FIRE UPON CUSTOMS PATROL GUARD BUT RETREAT AS FIRE RETURNED

WINDSOR, Ont., June 19. (P)—After a swift moving revolver battle in Detroit river today rum runners of the east Windsor sector retreated into Canadian waters after shooting a hole in the prow of a United States customs patrol cutter. There were no known casualties.

The rum runner deliberately opened fire without notice of the American boat. Walter S. Petty, acting collector of customs at Detroit, said: "His men returned the chase to the Canadian shore."

The police could not determine the number of men on the rum boat as they hid behind a high stack of liquor cases as they emptied their guns at the oncoming customs cruiser.

TRY ACQUITTED SCHOOL TEACHER ASSAULT CHARGE

TEXAS CREDIT SITUATION REPORTED EASIER BUT IS YET FAR FROM "FAVORABLE"

Robert McCulloch, 20-year-old school teacher, was found "not guilty" in county court Wednesday afternoon by the jury on his trial on a charge of aggravated assault in connection with the administering of a severe whipping to Elvie Fullin, March 5, 1929, at the Pecan school, north of Blooming Grove. The case attracted considerable attention and a large number of interested spectators were on hand for the trial.

It was alleged in the testimony that the teacher started to administer a whipping to the lad for some disobedience of the rules and that the teacher struck the lad with a plank several times when the boy was said to have attempted to attack the teacher with two knives.

The defendant entered a plea of "not guilty" when arraigned Wednesday morning.

The prosecution was conducted by H. B. Daviss, county attorney, and the defense was conducted by C. W. Taylor and Wayne R. Howell.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT STATE HOME GIVES PROGRAM THURSDAY

AUSTIN, June 20.—(UPI)—Recent developments in the money market indicate that the credit situation is a little easier for the time being, according to Bernard Nichols, editor of the Texas Business Review, issued monthly by the Bureau of Business Research at the University of Texas.

"However, credit conditions are far from favorable and the outcome through July and again during the active months is rather uncertain," Mr. Nichols said. "That the credit situation is still unfavorable is emphasized by the June government statement on financing. The short term notes carry a 5 1/8 per cent rate, the highest rate the treasury department has been forced to pay since the depression period of 1921. This compares with a rate of 4 3/4 per cent for the last government financing."

"Interest rates generally were lower. Call money on the New York Stock Exchange renewed on most days at 6 per cent to 7 per cent, and was quoted at levels above these figures on but a few occasions at the beginning of the month. Bankers' acceptances prepared with a high of 16 per cent in April and 20 per cent in March. These rates declined from 8 3/4 per cent in April to 8 1/2 per cent in May. Bankers' acceptances remained about unchanged at 5 3/4 per cent while rates on commercial paper held at 5 3/4 per cent to 6 per cent all during May. The decline in interest rates is a desirable feature, but the downward trend is likely to be checked soon in view of heavy demands for funds over the next few weeks. No change was made in the 16 per cent lending rate at the Dallas Federal Reserve Bank."

"Bank debts in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District show a small seasonal decrease compared to April but were 17 per cent above those in May, 1928. Checks cashed in the district for the four weeks ending May 29, according to the Dallas Federal Reserve Bank, totaled $829,000,000, compared to $1,000,000 in April and $709,000,000 in May a year ago. It appears that a large part of these funds are going into the stock market because retail and wholesale trade is under way. Last year industrial expansion is not great enough to account for the increase. Member banks borrowing at the Dallas Federal Reserve Bank declined from $16,000,

ANOTHER KILLING RESULTS FROM BET JOKESTER AT FAULT

MONEY TAKEN FROM POCKET STAKEHOLDER; FIGHT AND SLAYING ENSUES

PADUCAH, June 20.—(P)—A Jokester who took the stake money, $1,000, from the pocket of Roy Shannon, 23, yesterday, precipitated an argument in which Troy Taylor, 30, was shot to death. Shannon was at liberty today under $2,500 bond.

Shannon agreed to act as stakeholder for a bet on a baseball game here yesterday. After the game was over the winning bettor attempted to collect, but Shannon had lost the money. When one of the bettors began to feel through Taylor's pockets, he became offend, witnesses said.

Shortly afterward Shannon asked the city marshall to escort him to his home. The marshall complied, leaving Shannon in the front yard of his home.

Taylor, witnesses said, was waiting at the Shannon home for Shannon, and when Shannon arrived a fight started. A gun was discharged, several bullets striking Taylor, who died in a hospital.

Both Taylor and Shannon had been arrested recently and charged with possessing intoxicating liquors for the purpose of sale. Taylor was convicted on a similar charge several years ago, but was pardoned by Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson before he had served any of his sentence.

SEMINOLE INDIAN BEING TRIED FOR MURDER BY TRIBE

JOSIE BILLY, MEDICINE MAN, WILL HAVE NO WHITE COURT HEARING

FORT MYERS, Fla., June 20.—(P)—Before a court of his own people, at the annual dance of Green Corn today, Josie Billy, Seminole Indian medicine man, without the aid of alienist or psychiatrist, will answer a charge of slaying Nu-f-Che, widowed squaw, with a plea that he was temporarily insane while under the influence of liquor.

In the Everglades, the tribe has gathered to celebrate this festival and to try the medicine man, who in the past has sat in judgment upon his fellows.

Whatever the verdict, and it may be death or trial by fire, it will be executed summarily, and without interference from the white men, for the courts have taken no action in the case. Seminole law has long taken precedence over Florida jurisprudence. Prosecutors have found the tribal language and customs an insurmountable barrier.

Philip Billy, also known as Johnny Bill, must likewise answer to the assembled tribesmen for a slaying which resulted from an argument over liquor. Charley Lee was killed during the argument.

These two senators were prominent in the campaign, stumping the agricultural west in behalf of Mr. Hoover and the republican party.

Export Debenture Plan Advocated

WASHINGTON, June 20.—(AP)—The export debenture plan, eliminated from the farm relief program, was advocated today before a senate finance sub-committee by L. J. Taber, master of the National Grange, as the only method by which growers of surplus crops could receive the benefit of the tariff.

He said unless the farm was given a "drawback" like that given domestic manufacturers of imported goods for export, there "will be a different story to tell."

"You better tell the story because you are not going to get it," observed Senator Connally, democrat, Texas.

"I am optimistic," Taber replied.

TEAGUE, June 20.—Crops in Freestone county are considered as doing very nicely at present time. Continuous dry weather for the past two weeks has given the farmers an opportunity to work their cotton and clean out the grass.

Practically one-half of the cotton is squaring, and there are a few scattering blooms. Boll weevils and other insects are reported in different sections of the county, however, not in very damaging numbers.

Get Up In The Morning Feeling DIZZY

"I BEGAN to suffer with headache and biliousness," says Mr. John C. Malone, of Buena Vista, Ohio. "I had a hurting through the middle part of my body which seemed to come from indigestion. I would get constipated, and then feel all out of sorts. I would get up in the morning feeling dizzy, and everything I ate would disagree with me. Someone asked me why I did not try Black-Draught. I found it to be just the medicine I needed. When I feel a spell coming on, I begin by taking a dose of Black-Draught, dry, at night. I continue to take it for several days, and in a short while I am feeling fine. It is all the medicine I need."

Costs only 1 cent a dose.
